On the market for the first time in its present form, originally an old olive mill it was converted by the present owners in 1983 when no expense was spared and now provides an amazing 300m2 detached villa exuding luxury throughout sitting on a secluded plot of some 6000m2. Antique timber gates lead to a massive courtyard with two large garages. An attractive glazed entrance way leads to the main house which is mainly on one level and comprises of a fantastic 64m2 lounge dining room with a beautiful central feature fireplace. A country style Eroko kitchen is well equipped with Bosch and Siemens appliances and granite work surfaces. There is also a utility room, store room and airing cupboard off the kitchen. 5 large bedrooms all with fitted wardrobes and their own en-suite bathrooms finished in polished marble and heated towel rails. There is a 6th bedroom which is currently used as a cozy lounge but still has the plumbing in place for a bathroom if required. Off of the lounge there is a 156m2 west facing terrace partly covered providing a large seated dining area. There is also a summer kitchen and BBQ area, ideal for "al fresco" living. Views from this terrace across Nerja and down the coast to Malaga and beyond (Gibraltar is visible on particularly clear days). A lower terrace of approximately 320m2 has a lovely 16m x 6m swimming pool and another summer kitchen and BBQ. Beyond the lower terrace there is around 2000m2 of well planted gardens and fenced in tennis court, a very large games room and storage.
